

Dressage and flatwork Clinic With Fiona van Tuyll

Dressage lessons with fully surround dressage boards

Former International event rider Fiona Van Tuyll represented her native Holland at Junior, Young Rider and Senior Level. She was a team silver medallist and was placed 5th at Punchestown European and 6th at Burghley European as well as competing in the Barcelona Olympics. Fiona also has competed up to Intermediate level dressage. Since retiring from competitive riding Fiona has trained many successful horse and rider combinations in all disciplines, including William Fox-Pitt.

Aims of the Clinic

- To give confidence to the horse and rider
- To be fun and to teach you how to get your horse to be balanced and responsive to your commands
- Useful techniques on how to warm up for a test and exercises to work on in-between competitions
- Opportunity to work through tests
- Sessions are open to all levels of riding. Riders must, however, be safely off the leading rein.
