

George Bateman

Polework, Gridwork and Jumping Clinic

We are delighted to welcome back the wonderful George Bateman to Boyton Hall. George has ran many clinics with us and is hugely popular. The clinics book up quickly as everyone keeps coming back for more.

George is an international rider who has competed up to 1.40m. But for you mere mortals out there please do not let this put you off. George is just fabulous with everyone. Whether you are starting out with a youngster, looking to gain confidence or simply wishing to improve your relationship and way of going with poles George is your man.

George has learnt a wide range of techniques from highly trained trainers in the UK and on the continent and every session is tailored to meet your needs.
